long to see the place where I was born; Where the or-ange and the sweet mag-no-lia trees; I am ban-jos soft-ly ring and the dar-kies sweet-ly sing, Along-ing now to go where the south-ern breez-es blow, And mong the fields of su - gar cane and corn. How I'd hear the mock - ing bird's sweet mel - o - dies. For I love to see once more be - side the cab - in door The want to see once more be - side the cab - in door The love-light in my dear old moth - er's eyes. Oh, take me to the one who said to me a sad good - bye. Oh, take me to my old plan - ta - tion, In Dix - ie un - der - neath the south - ern skies.

dear old moth - er, And there just let me live un - til I die.

CHORUS

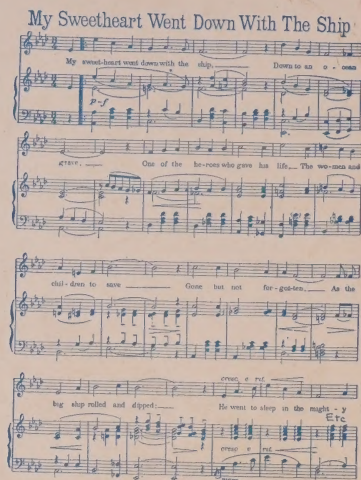

Take me back, take me back where the Swa - nee Riv - er flows, Take me

back, take me back where the cot - ton blos - som grows, There is where I long to be, for it's "home, sweet home" to me, Take me back where the Swa - nee Riv - er flows. _____
